

Personal Development Profile

Learning Development Needs	Development Objectives	Achievement Dates	Actions to be used	Outcomes or Evidence
What broad areas do you wish to address?	What specific goals are you setting yourself?	When do you expect to achieve your objective?	How will you achieve your objective? (Resources Required)	How will you show that you have achieved your objective?
1. Understand the desired character traits of being an effective member of the Inspiring Youth Programme.	I am going to show that I am capable of completing the project by showing improvement in all areas.	I shall give myself two weeks to show that I can start to improve my performance in school, at home and in the community	No resources are needed for improvement at school and home but my community project may require some resources when planned fully	I aim to show an improvement week on week as I progress through the project. I will start with my attendance and test results in school and improve by helping do chores at home.
2. Understand the importance of concentrated activity.
3. Understand the importance of a balanced attitude to work, study and leisure				